way of treating so important a subject. arisage, and an extraordinary state of facts. It sis claimed that the lettar annexed by the Ontice sales embraced all the country East of the Rio Grande. This was what Texas claimed. How the country in an independent Mexican protests country in an independent Mexican prowine, and appoint a Governor over it. The geny a joke, but the joke had been carried too far, and become a serious fact.

Mr. Schenck here entered upon a pungent review of Captain Stockton's Proclamation, and jemanded to know if such a paper had been sanc-the President.

Wr. Winthrop drew an omen of good from this sion, and he trusted it was a guarantee of od. The President in his message, made it but the else than treason to speak aloud or to think and of the Executive, and the manner in which has carried on a war. He even refers to treahe has a fit to awe men from commenting upon his so as if to awe men from commenting upon his public acts. That was true liberty where free public acts. That was true liberty where free public acts. That was true liberty where free form men dare to speak of the administration of Government according to their own judgments. Mr. W. concurred with the member from S. C that no conqueror had a right to establish a ermanent government in a conquered province, the President held some peculiar notions upon this and all matters connected with the Mexiregard the whole message as extraordinary.

Last year we were congratulated upon "a blood-less achievement," and this year upon the extension of our arms over a conquered Province.

The President assumed in his message that the conquered Provinces were in our country. reary, but he trusted that Congress would have something to say of so grave a matter as this, and also upon the Presiden's demand to us that e should erect fortifications in foreign countries. He called upon Congress to assert its right to

ons. If he could not do this in public session, n do it in secret. Mr. Holmes of S. C. rebuked his colleague for te power which he claimed for the conqueror. If and a doctrine had ever been assumed by the law nations, it was superseded by the law of Christianity. The President could not have endorsed the Proclamation of Capt. Stockton. It was imleage of the law of nations. The Proclamation of Capt. Stockton he could not defend, and he regarded the act itself as a high assumption of power.

Midway Female School.

THE sixth year of this Institution commenced on the 2nd September, and will continue to the 1st August, 1847. It is situated on the stage road, thirteen miles West of Tappahannock, and thirty-five South-east of Richmond. The buildings are neat, spacious and airy, and are surrounded with ample and well-shaded play-grounds. The situation is remarkably healthy, and, in respect to the aids which location can give to moral and latellectual improvement, unsurpassed by any other; the society of the neighborhood being moral, intelligent and refined.

In establishing this School, the subscriber was not actuated by the desire of pecuniary profit, as will be seen from the Terms, but of educating his own children, (having five daughters,) and, wishing the aid of his friends, takes pleasure in informing them, that he has secured the services of Miss Annie Grey Snow, of New York, for the ensuing year, 1846-77. Miss Snow is a lady of unquestionable qualifications, upon whose experience, knowledge, and moral conduct, he can implicitly rely.

Miss Snow will be aided by Miss Eliza J. Thompson, late of Mount Holyoke Seminary, who also brings the lighter testimonials of moral virtue, as well as profound late of Mount Holyoke Seminary, who also brings the highest testimonials of moral virtue, as well as profound scholarship.

In Music, both vocal and instrumental, Miss Snow

In Music, both vocal and instrumental, Miss Snow possesses qualifications of the highest order. Particular attention will be paid to the manners, habits and morals of the young tadies, at all times; and every pains taken to insure a profitable employment of the time out of school; in taking wholesome and becoming exercise, in preparing recitations, and in instructive reading and conversation. A deep interest will be taken in the advancement of the pupils, not confining their exertions to the fixed hours of the school-room, but ever on the watch to seize the favorable moment, when indirect instruction may produce a powerful effect, by not appearing in the form of a dictatorial legson.

ful effect, by not appearing in the form of a dictatorial lesson.

Mrs. Minor promises, on her part, kind and maternal treatment, neat and airy rooms, and good fare.

Course or Isstruction.—Orthography, Reading, Writing, Ancient and Modern Geography, English Grammar, Arithmetic, Mathematics, Civil, Natural and Ecclesiastical History; Natural, Morel and Intellectual Philosophy, Rhetoric, Logic and Epistolary Correspondence; Chemistry and Botany; French, Music, Drawing and Painting. The various kinds of Needle-Work will be taught—for idleness in youth being the parent of every vice, the pupils will be defended from it, by having a great variety of employment placed within their reach.

Tanus:—The terms are such as merely to defray the necessary a d absolute expenses:

For Board and all the necessaries, for the ten scholastic mouths, lastic months, Fuition in all, or any of the English branches, French, Music, including use of Piano,

Music on Guitar and use of Instrument,
Drawing and Painting, each
Drammatal Negliewors,
The above is a candid statement of the expense

Drnampntal Negliework.

The above is a candid statement of the expenses of the School; and parents and guardians are assured that there will be no additional charge; at any rate, not without their express permission. In event of sickness, every attention will be bestowed with parental care, and no charge made for professional services, should any be rendered.

The above School has been in successful operation for five years, and the most satisfactory testimonials and references can be furnished, if necessary.

Young ladies will be received at any time; and no one will be required to remain a day longer than entire satisfaction is given. For any time less than ten months, a small additional charge per month will be made. Persons wishing to putonise the School, will come and examine for themselves.

N. B. Arrangements have been made to enlarge the buildings, and to extend the School; and the services of a third elegant, profound and accomplished lady have been secured to teach Latin, Greek and Italian, and to assist in the higher branches of English—Miss Lidia Mary Fay, late of Alexandria, Va, so tayorably known as a teacher in that place—in a word, it is the object and wish of the proprietor to raise the standard of female education, and to offer to his friends and patrons a School at which their daughters and wards can receive all necessary and useful instruction at less than one-half of the expense and cost of a city education.

Valuable Pamunkey Farm

FOR SALE WITH NEGROES, CROPS, STOCKS, &c. INTENDING to remove permanently (for the benefit of my wife's health.) to the estate recently purchased by me of Mr. Ross, in the county of Albemarle, I shall, on MONIAY, the 28th day of December next, at 12 o'clock, M., if fair, if not, the next fair day thereafter, selt at public acction, upon the premises, my WOOD-BUSY ESTATE, 1 sing on the famunkey river, in the county of Hanover, three miles below the Court-house, and eighteen from the city of Richmond. The tract contains 860 acres, of which about 400 are Pamunkey flat land, the greater portion of which is capable of growing thirty bushels of wheat to the acre. The land is in a good state of improvement, and the crop of wheat for the present year, on one of the shitts, has produced 1,500 bushels.

There is a small Dwelling House of four rooms, (lately repaired,) with Stables, Barns, &c., and a sufficient number of comfortable Cabins for double the force required to work the estate. Contiguous to the house, is one of the finest springs of water in lower Virginia—The neighborhood is highly intelligent and agreeable. At the same time and place, I shall sell publicly between fifty and sixty valuable SLAVES, consisting of men, women and children, with such kinds of Stock as I may not wish to remove, and the Crops of Corn, Fodder, etc., etc.

VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND AND MILL IN THE COUNTY OF AMELIA, AND FORTY EIGHT SLAVES FOR SALE.
THE subscriber, in consequence of protracted ill health, and inshifty to attend with advantage to his agricultural operations, offers for sale the Tract of Land on which he resides, and forty eight Slaves. It is six miles South-west of the Court House, on Buckakin Land on which he resides, and forty eight Slaves. It is six miles South-west of the Court House, on Buckakin Creek, containing fifeen hundred acres; one hundred and fifty acres of it is flat land, must of which has been well drained; eighty acres of highly improved tobacco lots, admirably adapted to the growth of Wheat, Cloyer and Tobacco. The buildings are in good order, the Dwelling House large and convenient, containing two passages and seven rooms; two Granaries, Ice house, and all other out houses necessary for a large Farm; also, a good Apple and Peach Orchard. The Milli is on the Farm; it has a ever-failing stream of water, with a canal eight hundred yardslong, rendering a dam and pond unnecessary; yielding two hundred barrels of tail-corn annually. Attached to the Mill is a Cotton-giu and Cob crusher. Among the Slaves are two valuable Carpenters, and a Blacksmith.

I am auxious to sell both the Land and the Slaves; but I will not sell the Negroes unless I can effect a sale of the land at the same time. A small psyment in cash will be required; for the balance of the purchase money, a long credit if desired will be given, upon the payment of the interest annually. Any further description of the property is unnecessary, as no person would purchase without first viewing it, and judging for himselt.

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE, IN CHARLES CITY COUNTY, VA. PURSUANT to a decree of the County Court of Charles City, pronounced on the 21st day of November, 1846, in a suit in chancery depending in the said court under the style of "Christian's guardian against Christian and others," I shall expose to public sale, on the premises, on the 30th day of December, 1846, those variable Estates in said county, called and known by the names of Evelvition and Neston, conagainst Christian and others, "I shall expose to public sale, on the premises, on the 30th day of December, 1846, those valuable Estates in said county, called and known by the names of Evelyuton and Neston, containing by recent surveys, eight hundred and sity acres of beautiful, level, and highly improved land. These estates are about four miles above the Courthouse, on the James river road to Richmond, in one of the most desirable neighborhoods in lower Virginia, commanding a full view of the river, and overlooking Westover to the South, from which they are separated by "Herring Creek," on which they lie, a hold and deep stream, emptying into James river, nearly opposite to "Rice's Wood Wharf." The open land has all been heavily marled, and is well set in clover. The soil is adapted to the culture of all the crops usually raised in this section of Virginia, and is rapidly improving. A crop of wheat is growing on the land, which looks very promising. There are between three and four hundred acres cleared on these estates; the residue has on it a sufficient quantity of oak and pine, and a reasonable supply for the support of the farms, to attract the attention of persons engaged in the timber and wood business—all of which can be delivered at good landings on the Creek within one mile, and a great part of it not so much as a half mile from the landings.
